From $3190

Adventurous people wanted to try something new, something daring that keeps the blood pumping, and so mountain climbing has become a part of the plan. If you are having difficulty on what kind of mountain that you want to try out for yourself, then why not try climbing at Chulu East Peak? Chulu East Peak that is on top of Manang Valley, Nepal. Which is near at Annapurna Himalayas. Chulu East Peak is 850m./2789 ft and is very difficult to climb, that good for beginners to try out their first mountain climbing. This mountain is perfect for those people who are very physically fit, well adjusted to outdoor activity, especially when you have experience in climbing difficult mountains, or at least have an idea in mountain climbing with no problem.

It can be quite a challenge to take but to those who seek an adventure, then why not? Not only that you won't get bored having to trek your way, but you will be hit with the most breathtaking sight that you've ever seen. There's a lot of ground for you to go through before you reach your destination. You have to go through all the way from the Annapurna, then slowly ascend your way to the Marshyangdi valley, cross the Thorong La, get the chance to experience the exquisite culture of the people of Nepal, as you descend to the Kali Gandaki Valley. Even if the climb can be quite difficult not different from climbing Island Peak, but it is straightforward, so it's easier for you to use your equipment right, such as using an ice ax, harness, crampon, and climbing ropes. Most of the activity will have you stick together, connected by a rope so as a group you can easily walk on the glacial crossing, which might be dangerous if you don't have support to balance you.

The Chulu East Peak is a good start whenever you are ready to try out mountain climbings with a bit of a challenge that will help the experience more excitement and thrilling. As you ascend, you will see the base camp waiting for you. The good thing about it is that the living conditions of the base camp are perfect for you to relax, and enjoy your time up in the mountains and watch the view. The view on top of the mountains is the most magical thing that you've ever seen. Not only that it is gorgeous, but it is the best feeling as you reach the very top. You've successful climbed on top of the mountain, and the feeling that you've finally done fills you with happiness.

Chulu East Peak is not perfect for novice climbers who have 0 experience, and low in their physical fitness, so it is not the best place for you to try out your first mountain climbing. It can be a bit too much for a beginner, so it is better to leave it and try some other mountain that is easy for you to climb if the Chulu East Peak is not your cup of tea.
