

Paragliding Tour

 1 days

From $120

To those who seek adventure, you would love to try one of these! Paragliding tour is the best activity that you will never get to experience again. Why is it special? Well, who doesn't want to fly up in the sky and see the world below you? Oh, sure you can get it from mountain flight, but this? This is totally different. Unlike the mountain trip, you only get to ride on the plane with other people and tour the mountains, but paragliding tour you will get you to spread your wings and fly, either solo or with someone close to you to experience those moments.

Paragliding tour in Nepal is the perfect activity that you should try and experience it yourself. After all, who doesn't want to see the world up in the sky? The good thing about Nepal is that it is one of the perfect countries with the good weather condition, the ideal temperature to have your first paragliding tour. You needed to check the requirements before you can have your tour. First check to see the thermal is stable; see if the landing zone is safe or available, and also the take-off. When all these are all in good condition then you can begin your adventure with no fear or worry. The best thing is that you can expect when paragliding is that you get the chance to see nature be in perfect view for your viewing pleasure.

Paragliding has a separate harness for you and your passenger to seat on it, fully secured. If you are not experienced in stirring the paragliding correctly, then you will be receiving a pilot who will assist you. So, you can just seat on the extra harness in front of the pilot where you can enjoy the view, have a good conversation with your pilot and take pictures. But to those people who have done paragliding before then you can go solo as long as you have a civil aviation from the office at Pokhara. The price for the permit is $45 for just 15 days, which you can renew once it's expired whenever you have the time, which take the process 1 hour to be finished.

In regards to how safe it is when on the air, as a whole it is preferable to fly where you don't have to encounter busy intersection, where you have your parachute, and a large lake for you to jump in for safety. All in all, Paragliding tour is a very risky and adventurous activity, only to those who are acutely aware of the dangerous situations and know how to improvise can handle paragliding. But if you have a company who can handle for the insurance coverage, it is better to find a good company that does. Not only that, but there's also the trust of an expert pilot who can lead you to immediate safety no matter what, so you can rely on their expertise for that. For good advice, it is safer that way to take paragliding when the weather is in excellent condition, no high winds or rain or shine, just nice comfortable weather for a safe take-off.
